Yet I feel that I was fortunate in having my lot cast in this community, for the very reason that it was a reading community a half century ago. The parish library and the social library, with which I early became acquainted, though they would seem meagre to-day in comparison with their successor, were treasures, I imagine, which but few towns possessed. You enjoy a proud distinction among the three hundred towns and cities of this Commonwealth. When, more than thirty years ago, you received a generous gift from a source which greatly increased its value, you were not content to enjoy it alone. You seized the golden opportunity of placing, through your reverend representative, this great blessing within the reach of every town and city in the State. Other communities have received more princely benefactions, have erected more imposing...
