He was spotting the exact point where his Third Fighter group would have to turn back and leave the big Fortresses and Liberators to go it alone into the concentrated defenses of Germany. Weather Officer Miller looked glumly at the map as Colonel Holt placed his finger on a spot. 610 cloud over station six. Station six was a Luftwaffe fighter field. The colonel scowled and shook his head. Are the big boys going outYes, sir. Conditions over target are very good. Weather grinned when he said it. We wont get much of a whack at the Jerries, the colonel said rather testily. The Forts and Libs will make it through, Weather said with a lot of cockiness. He was beginning to act like the rest of the gang around headquarters who believed that the Forts and the Libs could go it alone all the way and shoot down any number of fighters the Germans could send up. Colonel Holt was a strong supporter for fighter cover. He was battling for a flock of longer-range...
