Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Manufacturer Excessive modesty is quite as depressing as too much self-esteem. Though I do not wish to embarrass the reader by an attitude of humility that suggests an exhibition of the art of angling, I must in all honesty affirm that no critic can be more conscious of the faults of this book than its author. As you pass through the ever-growing built-up areas have you not wondered how and where people who inhabit them earn their livings? One of the undesirable and perhaps dangerous results of this modern development is this tendency to shut up the various classes of society in watertight compartments.
