Reviews

This pdf will not be simple to start on reading through but extremely enjoyable to see. I have read and i also am sure that i will planning to read through again once more in the foreseeable future. You wont really feel monotony at whenever you want of the time (that's what catalogues are for relating to if you request me).

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1858 edition. Excerpt: . masters of similar establishments arc trained in the midst of the work, and amongst the persons whom they are hereafter to govern. Sir F. B. Head says: -- The central board has no power to punish the vicious, no right to revile the improvident, no authority to neglect the impotent. Their wants alone constitute their legal passport to relief; it is to be administered to them with an equal attention to generosity on the one hand, and justice on the other. Surely, therefore, this being the case, it is more important to provide some government that is capable of exercising a moral influence and discrimination in matters connected with the poor. It is essential to woman s success in undertaking any higher employment, to wit, that she must undergo special training for her work, as any one of the other sex must undergo special training for his work. Dilettante visiting, desultory fits of charity, must give way to serious application, laborious preparation, and long study. --Industrial and Social Position of Women, p. 280. We see, in the very first times of Christianity, an apostolical institution for the employment of woman s powers directly in the service of God. We find them employed as servants of the Church. We read in the Epistle to the Romans of a deaconess, as in the Acts of the Apostles of deacons. Not only men were employed in the service of the sick and poor, but also women....
