Brand New Book  Print on Demand .From the Preface. .The most celebrated transaction in the life of St. Katherine, and perhaps as impudent a fiction as any in the whole legendary mythology, is the story of her marriage with the divine Saviour. We are told that the Virgin Mary appeared to an aged anchorite named Adrian, and commanded him to go to Alexandria and invite the Princess Katherine, in her name, to accompany him to his hermitage in the desert, where she would see and be united in marriage to that heavenly King, for love of whom she had refused the love of the numerous earthly kings who had solicited her hand. The venerable messenger obeyed, and, having arrived at the palace, miraculously Obtained access to the princess in her private study, where he told his errand; which she no sooner heard than she joyfully agreed to accompany him to the appointed place. When they reached the desert, and were near the confines of his cell, the hermit could not recognize his humble abode, and began to be in great trouble, thinking he had lost his way; but, when he had uttered a fervent prayer, he looked up, and beheld "the most glorious mynster that ever man saw, and heard a marvelous melody of voices of saints and angels. Here they were welcomed by the blessed Virgin, who told Katherine, that, as she had not been baptized, she was not yet fit to come into her Sons presence. Upon this " there appeared in chyrche a fonte solemnly arrayed with all that long thereto: and the blessed Virgin called Adrian, and bade him baptize her daughter, and not to change her...
