Excerpt from Report of a Visitation of the Philippine Mission: Of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America We are at the end of a victorious war, but at the beginning of the momentous problems to which it has given rise. It is therefore not a time for national glorification or for appeals to greed or passion, but for thoughtful, solemn consideration of our duty. By no scheming of our own, and in ways very strange to us, we have been forced into governmental relations with eight millions of people on the other side of the planet. Some of them are partially civilized; many are wholly primitive, and nearly all are heathen with a thin veneer of Romanism of the mediaeval-Spanish type. They are variously judged. As in China, much depends upon the point of view. Many soldiers, having come to the Philippines with a military man's natural ambition to see the active service which will give the coveted opportunity for fame and promotion, see in the Filipino...
