I do confess I had a very great desire to take a more particular view of him, because GOD gives him such an Elaborate and accurate Description in the 41st of Job: And this I particularly observM, That the Sun shining upon him, cast a very orient Reflection upon the Water; which is also confirm d by the Description given of him, Job 41:32. He maketh a path to shine after him, one wou d think the Deep to be hoary: Another thing I observ d was, That there was so great a smoak where he was, that it seem d to me as if there had been a Town full of Smoaking Chimneys in the midst of the Sea. I do confess I never saw Po large and formidable Creature in my Life. He appear1 d to me as big as either of the Holmes s, two little Islands that lie at the mouth of the Severn, near Bristol in England. It was impossible for me to take the True Dimensions of pewter dishes, and room enough in his mouth for many people to sit in. Now may they look upon his terrible teeth, and handle his great and tree-like tongue, which is upwards of two yards in breadth, and in length longer and thicker than the tallest man that is upon the earth. Out of which...
