And are you then willing to aid in stimulating this system? Greater evils never threatened civilisation and religion, than the great cities which have been springing into existence within the last one hundred years. If we would save civilisation, religion, and the morality and happiness of our people, we must reform our towns. And one great step towards that end will be to do away with those causes, which drive so many of our agricultural population into them. Dr. Channing, in his Duty of Free States, says: -- To a man who looks with sympathy and brotherly regard on the mass of the people, who is chiefly interested in the lower classes, England must present much...
