Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Question of Caste Mr. President: - In asking you to consider the Question of Caste, I open a great subject of immediate practical interest. Happily, Slavery no longer exists to disturb the peace of our Republic; but it is not yet dead in other lands, while among us the impious pretension of this great wrong still survives against the African because he is black, and against the Chinese because he is yellow. Here is nothing less than a claim of hereditary power from color, and it assumes that human beings, cast in the same mould with ourselves, and in all respects men, having the same title of manhood that we have, may be shut out from Equal Rights on account of the skin. Such is the pretension plainly stated. On other occasions it has been my duty to show how inconsistent is this pretension with our character as a Republic, and with the promises of our Fathers, - all of which I consider never out of order to say and to urge. But my present purpose is rather to show how inconsistent it is with that sublime truth, being a part of God s law for the government of the world, which teaches the Unity of the Human Family, and its final harmony on earth. In this law, which is both commandment and promise, I find duties and hopes; perpetual duties never to be postponed, and perpetual hopes never to be abandoned, so long as man is man. Believing in this law, and profoundly convinced that by the blessing of God it will all be fulfilled on earth, it is easy to see how...
