Excerpt from Our Home City Let a man but have an aim, a purpose, and opportunities to attain his end shall start forth like buds at the kiss of spring. Say not thou lackest talent What talent had any of the great ones better than their passionate trust in the efficacy of labor? The main thing is to have an aim and to pursue it with perseverance. There are no opportunities for those who have no life purpose. - Bishop Spalding. How true are those old Arabian Nights fables. Mocking and whispering, and abuse loud and low by turns, from all the black stones beside the road, when one living soul is toiling up the hill to get the cooling water. Mocking and whispering, that he may look back, and become a black stone like themselves. - Ruskin. Without earnestness nothing can be achieved, but marvelous results follow from the diligent devotion of ones powers, time, and money to the accomplishment of a design steadily held in view. Let a man have good faith, a serious purpose,...
